

Phillip Landolt

Dr Phillip LANDOLT is a founding partner of the Geneva international arbitration law firm LANDOLT & KOCH. As a native English speaker, he focusses his practice on advocacy (counsel and co-counsel work) but also serves as an arbitrator, and as a legal expert (the latter often concerning competition law issues in arbitration). He also teaches at the Law Faculty of the University of Geneva as a Senior Lecturer.

Phillip LANDOLT is a Barrister & Solicitor (Ontario, Canada, 1994), a Solicitor (England & Wales 1997), and an avocat (Geneva, Switzerland, 2007).

Phillip LANDOLT's academic legal education is as follows:

- Université d'Ottawa (B.Soc.Sci.), 1989
- University of Toronto (J.D.), 1992
- Università degli Studi, Ferrara, Italy (doctoral research), 1995
- Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg i. B. Germany (doctoral research), 1996
- Christ's College, University of Cambridge (Ph.D in law), 1997
- King's College, University of London (Post-Graduate Diploma in EU Competition Law), 2004
- CEDR Mediation skills training – December 2011

Phillip is Swiss and Canadian. Aside from his native English, he speaks French, German and Italian, and has a working knowledge of Dutch and Spanish.

He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and the Honorary Treasurer of its European Branch.

